

HEAVEN

IS

MY

HOME

Waiting to go home...

We miss Mary... every Sunday she used to come to the Chapel and after the morning service we had lunch together. She would bring a delicious home-made apple crumble for us to enjoy; now in a local Care Home she can't even get out of her bed and she tells her carer that she wants to go home.

A young staff member remarked "I think she means she wants to go to Heaven". She was right! This IS what Mary meant.

God means His people to look forward to Heaven and Mary certainly does. When Jesus was going to return to His Father in Heaven He promised His disciples they'd follow Him later. Jesus gave this assurance even though His friends were sinners and the Bible teaches that sin can never enter Heaven. The reason He could say this was because He was going to die - to be punished for the sins of everyone who would repent and believe in Him.

Many years ago Mary trusted God in this way. Now over 90 years of age and very weak - she simply wants to go home! For over 200 years God's wonderful message, that sinful people like me can be forgiven and enter Heaven, has been proclaimed at the Chapel. On June 15th we celebrate its 229th birthday. We give you a very warm invitation to join us on that occasion and whenever you can!

Sincerely,

George Rabey - Pastor
